

Mark Dicey

Since 1985 Mark Dicey has exhibited his work extensively, most recently in 2018, the Nickle Galleries at the University of Calgary curated a solo exhibition for Dicey, which included paintings, works on paper and installation.

Active in Calgary's art scene throughout his career, Dicey has pursued painting, performance, installation, music, teaching and curating.

His work is in numerous private collections as well as the Canadian Embassy to Belgium, Alberta Art Foundation, City of Calgary, Nickle Galleries and Chateau Lake Louise (to name a few).

Dicey is represented by Jarvis Hall Gallery, Calgary and Michael Gibson Gallery, London, Ontario